

PRAYING TOGETHER

Monday 11 October

Reading: James 2: 12 – 13

Talk and behave like people who are going to be judged by the law of freedom, because there will be judgement without mercy for those who have not been merciful themselves; but the merciful have no fear of judgement

In the life of his incarnate Son, God has shown us the dignity of man's labour. With this in mind we pray

Lord, bless our work

We bless you, Lord, for each day:- we thank you for protecting our lives and giving us what we need

Lord, bless our work

Be with us, Lord, as we take up our daily tasks:- and help us to remember that it is in your world we live and work

Lord, bless our work

You have called us to serve you responsibly in the world:- help us to build a just and Christian society

Lord, bless our work

Stay with us and with everyone we meet:- let us give your joy and your peace to the world

Lord, bless our work

Our Father ...

King of heaven and earth, Lord God, rule over our hearts and bodies this day. Sanctify us, and guide our every thought, word and deed according to the commandments of your law

We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen