

PRAYING TOGETHER

Monday 15 November

Reading: Colossians 3:16

Christ's message, in all its richness, must live in your hearts. Teach and instruct each other with all wisdom. Sing psalms, hymns, and sacred songs; sing to God with thanksgiving in your hearts

Christ taught us to set our hearts on the Kingdom of God, and on justice. In that Kingdom all that we need will be given to us. Until then, let us pray:

Your Kingdom come, O Lord

Blessed are those who know their need of God:- lead us to seek your face in purity of heart

Your Kingdom come, O Lord

Blessed are those who work, for no reward, those who suffer for what is right:- comfort them with your presence, lighten their burden

Your Kingdom come, O Lord

Blessed are the gentle, those who show mercy and forgive:- they shall you're your forgiveness at the end of time

Your Kingdom come, O Lord

Blessed are the peacemakers, those who reconcile the conflict and hate:- they are indeed the sons of God

Your Kingdom come, O Lord

Bring consolation to all who mourn the dead:- may they share the blessed hope of all who have died in the peace of Christ

Your Kingdom come, O Lord

Our Father ...

As we pray before you, Lord, we ask you, in your mercy, for the grace always to ponder in our hearts what we proclaim with our lips

We make our prayers through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen
